[REDACTED] 25X1

1. A concentration of many tanks, artillery pieces, signal communication trucks, and infantry troops with equipment, including an unusually large number of mortars, was observed in the area south of Zehdenick (N 53/U 70) between 20 and 23 September 1950. More columns of troops kept arriving from various directions.
2. A Soviet soldier said that major field exercises would start Sunday night, 24 September 1950. *
